

811. A dress (? for dancing) composed of sections of bamboo, threaded on strings, pendant from a string belt ;
 812—814. Three flexible bangles: one of copper ; and two of iron wire ; and

815, 816. Two flexible leglets of spirally wound iron wire. Collected by the donor, 1905. A. C. Haddon, Sc.D., F.R.S. [Nos. 792—816.]

AMERICA.

NORTH AMERICA.

817. A large toothed comb of bone (4''·2 × 3''·2), the square, convex, top is incised, and bears the figures of four does in an open-work panel ;
 818. A bolas for water-fowl : nine pointed, egg-shaped balls of bone, attached to a bunch of sinew strands ;
 819. An adze-like hide scraper of bone (l. 13'') ;
 820. An open cup-shaped box (h. 3''·8), with square base and decorated rim, cut from the butt of a walrus tusk ;
 821. A small wooden trinket-box painted red (2''·8 × 4''). A pair of human figures, carved in bold relief, clasp the oval box, with outstretched arms and legs, and the lid, painted green, is decorated with two animals' heads (? of seals). The eyes are set with white beads ; and 822—824. Three harpoon-heads of bone: two barbed and one nicked. Eskimo. Behring Straits ;
 825. A spoon-shaped scraper of musk ox horn with four teeth (l. 11''·4), the taper-handle incised with

MEXICO.

830. A minute doll (d. 0''·7), of coloured silks. Cuernavaca Indians. Miss C. H. Osborne.

COLOMBIA.

- 831 a, b. A pair of small figures (h. 1''·4) carved in wood: a man playing a guitar, and a woman nursing a child. Bogota ;
 832. A minute cup, carved from the half of a nut ; and
 833. An alligator, carved in alligator ivory. Magdalena River. Miss Cisneros. [Nos. 831—833.]

BRITISH GUIANA.

834, 835. Two small clubs of hard wood: (1) one with square sides and ends (l. 13''), bears an elaborate incised pattern, the head is inlaid with a cowrie shell, and the grip is bound with woollen string ; and (2) one with truncated, pointed butt (l. 19''·6),