

JL - J - 3

WOOD VESSEL: Ovoid, on three legs, with three double elbow-jointed handles diagonally set round the body. The whole is heavily grooved and blackened with hot iron. The grain is vertical, and the vessel has a lid.

Ht: (with lid) 51 cms

Ht: (without lid) 42 cms

W: 37.8 cms

(SWAZI) N. Ngweni / (AN + RB)
Swazi

This contains a quantity of pot-pourri and papers which describe it as an "Indian Scent Jar" given to William

PTO

Waterhouse by Sir Thomas Brassey on his return from a "Voyage in the Sunbeam" which circumnavigated the world 1876-7 and was presumably collected during that voyage.

See Phillips no. 156: exhibited 1979