

JL - A - 36 & A 37

MALE AND FEMALE FIGURES: Wooden, the male figure standing with knees bent, holding a pot in his hands. He is wearing a cape and back apron spotted to resemble leopard skin, also a headring. The woman is kneeling, and wears a neck ornament, waist beand and apron carved and treated with pokerwork. Both wear earstuds. Pokerwork contrast is used to pick out the features and the base of the male figure.

Ht: (man) 23.5 cms

Ht: (woman) 19.5 cms

BOUGHT FROM ZULU HERBALIST WHO SAID
HIS GRANDFATHER MADE THEM (JL?)

PTO

JL - A 37

JL - A 36

Probably made for sale - no record of any Zulu contexts of usage or figures (AW)