

JL-U 180.

BEADWORK ORNAMENT: consisting of seven narrow rolls of fabric covered on one side by glass seed-beads arranged in transverse bands. At each end are twisted fibre cords ending in tassels of blue, red and black beads. Bead colours: black, green, pink & white.

L (of beadwork) 84.5 cms.

W. 7.8 cms.

2440

N. Nguni

of JL-U-179. They are broadbelts or windresses a development of Ungungo (Colour comb used by S. Sotno, Zulu, Mfengu^{Hlubi}, Bhaca & others and fastening unlike Zulu, closer to S. Uguni Larger beads - Sotno influence, ending more Tembu colours. (Def S. NATAL border area)