

JL - A 61

FIGURE CARVING: Wooden, of a horseman, in light colored wood with details in contrast pokerwork. The horse's bridle and rein are made of leather and wire, attached with pins. A hole in the rump suggests that there may have been a tail of hair or similar substance. The gun is separately carved. The horse's head has been broken off and stuck back.

Ht 36.3 cms

SHANGAAN

ref: Battis, Junod + Grossest? "Colon"

