

JL - U - 85

BEADWORK ORNAMENT: Large panel of glass seed-beads strung in a pattern of small black and green lozenges picked out with white, and a large central lozenge in green on a red ground. The whole is backed with black cotton cloth, and there are short lengths of white and yellow beads at each end and a black cord tie.

L: (of panel only) 77 cms

W: 9 cms

Probably Zululand

ZULU early 20th century
see JL U 24

N. Nguni (Zulu?)

(p. 2)

Possibly Eshawe (exclusive to Zulu Kingdom)