

8

BRU-DE-WOLD,
COL.

B PV - DE - WOLD, COL.

A. 44/ita 22/3

1.12.1906

(6) spaces
8
(2) spaces

BRU-DE-WOLD, Col. H.T. file 44/Jan 22/3

[3]

Col. Bru-de-Wold. 4.12.06. (4 spaces)

The Natives were without leaders in ^{the} last rebellion, that is a lesson they have learnt and will know how to provide against next time. Necessity provides the man, an invariable rule. Had they had a man who organized their forces, the result would have been different. Moreover, they differed from ^{the} Zulus [of 1879] in that they were not in a state of organization. [We fought against a practically unknown quantity.]

¹ ~~Col. H.T.~~ Bru-de-Wold was Commandant of Natal Volunteers from 1902 to 1907. see Legg, History Natal and Zululand, p. 12