Dear Mr. Shepherd,

Some time ago I finished reading Ng'ayi's Life of Olyah Makiwane, and enjoyed it. It was awarded a second prize by the ^{Institute} of African Life & Languages. I write to ask whether the Lovedale Press cannot see its way to publishing it. Quite apart from the tribute it pays to one who was one of Lovedale's finest alumni, it gives much light on certain phases of the work of the F.M.S. & the N.F. Churches in the area including Lovedale. It would be a loss if it were not published, and Lovedale is the place that should publish it. If expense is a difficulty I shall prepare it for the press (health permitting) free of charge.

The Mission must have a life of Olyah!

Yours very sincerely,
M. G. B. Muriel
