

1st April, 1943.

Mr. Samuel Mqhayi,
Ntabozuko,
BERLIN, C.P.

Dear Sir,

58. 2. 6 We have received your letter of 29th ultimo. Your letter seems to imply that we are unwilling to help you, but of course a suggestion of this kind is forgetful of the actual situation. The fact that we have allowed you to incur a debt of ~~over £50~~ on recent orders is alone proof of our practical sympathy with you and our desire to aid you. There are, however, limits to which "support and encouragement" can go, and we feel that the University of Witwatersrand Press should shoulder this burden with us, particularly as they and not we are the publishers of INZUZO.

Yours faithfully,

W. S. M.

Royalties for 1942 were £14. 8. 4
leaving £43 = 14 = 2 outstanding.
