

the circulation of the M.S. amongst members of the family, with a view to getting additional matter of interest. As a matter of fact, I believe Timothy Mahoney has seen it; but on this point I am not sure.

A minor point is that the Literary Institute of African Lang. & Cult. gave this a prize, and asked that prize winning M.S. should as far as possible have publication - and so far none ^{of the Xosa MSS} has been published save a short thing by a Transvaal man. But of course it is the paper that calls the tune.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,
