In my humble opinion I suggest that the following gaps be made up or filled:-

- ① his great physical strength - he used to walk to King's Town from Macfarlan and much between Transkei districts like Qumbi & Mt Fere fording swollen rivers on foot - ploughing - carpentering -
- ② His fine collection of Xosa proverbs was unfortunately burnt down with his first Macfarlan Manse.
- ③ For his erudition and wisdom he was nick-named the "Sage of Macfarlan" by his personal friends
- ④ There seems to be a gap between "Upuma"
and the death of his ^{first} ~~second~~ wife 1858-1917
- ⑤ Other gaps are indicated in the letters below
by Cecil Makwane
