

adhléna intaba i he was banished. N.
 went home, killed cattle, waz'ing' igabe i cooked meat some day as the killing, & got 2 or 3 young women & went off with them them, as he lived to the Basutos, either Mshoeskwe, Maboko, Ingombana or other Basuto chief where his ~~big~~ people became quite a tribe.

[This is the case Welil once told me of when I visited Bulawayo three yrs ago.
 Socwatha agrees that Welil might well have done so being a relation of Nsengezi] see p. 52 of Black Nbk.
