Note. 17.12.98. I find John Gama does not know the regts at all well. He says Mahubulu is only a xiba regt. and Tigogodolo should be lama Zicele. He never paid much attention to the regiments. Mapekeleli and others used to tell him names of them but he has forgotten.

This portion of list given me by Sijewana ka Mjanyelwa (of Ndabakawombe) he believes he ~~was~~ is younger than Sir T. Shepstone & about Mr. John Shepstone's age, but I fancy him to be about 80 – he is nearly blind but still strong & well. He adds that Mpande was Ndabakawombe & ~~to~~ was father of Cetshwayo who was Tulwana so there must be a second Ndabakawombe older than one to which Sijewana belongs. He does not know where this should come in. 13.11.99. at Stanger.

Notes in regard to the above lists. Tongaland. I got the whole list from two men, Mahungane and Nkomuza (Nkomuza wohlatshwa) genuine Tongas but residing in Ingwavuma Dist close to Pongolo & Ingwavuma, both resided in Tongaland for many years. Mahungane is ntanga ka Tulwana i.e. his regiment is Insananda, whilst Nkomuza is ntanga yo Dhlokwe. Mbungabunga and Mamba regiments were buta'd by Mwali but existed under Makasane. Makasane's own regiments proper begin with Upunga. The Ingubokamanaba so called because at that time Manaba attacked by . . . . Inzanayo hlasela'd at Mapunga. Unompilela, Imkwitshimana & others never were engaged in warfare (hlasela'd). To qamba ibuto is in Tonga to eta ibuto. The 'a' ~~in~~ at end of each word is of course eliminated for euphony's sake.

Note. The Zululand regiments were given me on 10.1.97 by Socwatsha as Mpande's. I have copied them in here from another note-book.

~~[illegible]~~ The above Tongaland regiments were recruited ~~by [illegible]~~ as follows: Mwali recruited only Umbungabunga and Umamba, Makasane's follow & end with Amahebula, Nozingile's begin ~~& end~~ with: Izitshozi & end with Inzanayo, Ngwanaza's begin with Nompilela & go to end of list. Zambili recruited what for her son? Only Nompilela
