Native Opinion.

WEDNESDAY, FEB. 23, 1887.

Dr. BERRY for IT is now an open secret that a section of the electors of King William's Town has been in communication with this renowned and worthy frontiersman...

man possessing these qualities in a remarkable degree to evolve something out of the confusion which at present exists in the Assembly to the serious detriment of public business.

While aware of the sacrifices demanded of professional men who consent to spend a portion of their time in the public interest, we urge, nevertheless, upon Dr. BERRY to accept the proposals now made to him...

Editorial Notes.

LOVEDALE has, we think, reason to be satisfied with its work when it draws European pupils from Port Elizabeth, the Diamond Fields and even Cape Town.

Mr. SAUER remarked last Session that Mr. Tadhope, the Colonial Secretary, was a "platiudarian"; and unless his speech at Uitenhage, on Thursday last, has been badly reported, his platiudaries have placed him in a queer position.

persons? For surely it can't be the Transkeian natives who are "prosperous and fairly well-to-do!" Then we are told these natives "are peaceful, quiet, and loyal subjects of the Queen."

Mr. TUDHOPE's remarks on the Franchise as it exists on this side of the Kei River are more reassuring. He said, "The Ministry, however, had no intention, as had been said, to take the franchise from the natives who at present possessed it."

THE annual meeting in connection with the British Kaffrarian Savings Bank was held on Friday evening last. The statement of the transactions of the year 1886 submitted to the Depositors was highly satisfactory.

THE Jubilee celebration, (observes the Cape Times) begins early in India, the first act being the release of twenty-five thousand prisoners. This is one of the original methods of Jubilee keeping, and one of the best.

MR. JESSE SHAW, of Fort Beaufort, is one of those practical citizens of which the Cape Colony has reason to be proud. His researches in African native medicines are, we fancy, by this time well known; and through them he has alleviated many of the sufferings of humanity not only in South Africa but also in India and other parts of the world.

IT is gratifying to observe that the Imvo Almanack for this year is much appreciated. Referring to it the Frontier Standard (Cathcart) says:—"We beg to acknowledge the receipt of Imvo Almanack. It is well got up, of portentous size, and reflects great credit upon our Kafir contemporary."

CORRESPONDENCE.

TRANSKEIAN INTERPRETERS. Butterworth, February 1887. Sir,—Will you kindly bring before the notice of the public the inconvenience in which the native under clerks are occasionally put to, and which at times entails great expense.

Observer.
