BACK AGAIN

Punch has a cartoon of Cetywayo seated in a hansom at the London Docks, just after landing from the steamer:

Cabby "Where to Sir?" Cetywayo "Same old place' Melbury Road, Yah! Yah! Yah!"

What! am 'sprised, Massa Bull, jist to see 'im again? -

'Im ole boss Ketchewayo bome back.

Yes, 'im 'ere! Berry sorry, 'km come to complain

Ob dem niggers down dar, what say 'im shan't reign

Cos 'im come quite the Masher - in black;

So 'im thinks as they ' spise 'in togs A la mode

I would like to come back to Ole Melbury Road!

When 'im firs com to 'ngland, 'im slide down the stair

Dance 'im war-dance in big 'Olland Park;

Bound 'im head a cloth muffin of gold too 'im ~~wax~~ wear,

And learn to drink rum while 'im sit on a chair,

As 'im sing nigger song in the dark.

Dem ~~dar~~ people each side wish 'im change 'is abode -

But yah, yah! 'im still stick to Ole Melbury Road!

But he stay dar, and jump dar - till Gladstone one day

~~Say to~~ 'im, " Dear Brer Nigger - go back:

Cos for thirty-nine pounds of beefsteak every day,

'Im ole Government, yah! yah! 'im st no like to pay!"

"Take 'im crown, dar. - Brer Nigger, and pack."

And den dat dar Brer Nigger, with joy 'im explode,

And 'im stand on 'im head, in Ole Melbury Road!

But, o golly, when back dar 'im rives ~~gex~~ gay trim,

Dem Niggers say, "Whom set 'im free?"

And as soon as 'im put on 'im crown with 'im brim,

And jist say, "Massa Gladstone," dem say "Whom is 'Im "

And dis Nigger, 'im get up a tree!

So 'im wait for 'im chance, and 'im kick off 'im load,

And so 'ere 'im come back to Ole Melbury Toad!

/Shepstone's confidential report on his visit to Zululand in 1861 /
Mpande speaking/ "He then alluded to the Boers and their value as Allies, he said, 'Against black men, they are strong, against Englishmen weak, they are fickle because they are always moving about, and they are useless, because they have no head.'
