8 The Bishop of Natal is much obliged to 9 Mr. Holyoake for a copy of his reply to Dr. Cumming's publications on the Pentateuch.

10 As so much has been said by 11 Dr. Cumming & others - totally ignorant of the subject upon which they are discussing - 12 of the 'worth of scholarship', 'ignorance of Hebrew criticism', etc. which is exhibited 13 in the Bp's books, & as even Mr. Maithwa Andol has allowed himself to speak of it in Macmillan's Magazine as 14 'going forth amidst the title of educated Europe' - a phrase which he seems 15 to have borrowed from Mr. McCaul of the Record, who has been 16 smartly handled in the last number of 'Evangelical Christianity' a 17 journal in the service of his own friends - ~~Andol~~

18 The Bp. thinks it right to forward for Mr. Holyoake's perusal two or three letters which he has received from scholars of high character & European reputation - Dr. Kalisch, the best Hebrew scholar in England, & Dr. Hupfeld one of the very first in Germany

As they are private letters, they are not sent to Mr. Holyoake for publication, but only to satisfy him, (as he, perhaps, is not himself a student of Hebrew) that the Bp's criticisms are not deemed contemptible by scholars worthy of the name.

The Bp. will be obliged to Mr. Holyoake to return the enclosed letters when he has done with them.

Thanks for Part III. The influence superiority of its tone over that of your assaults and the perfect working of the argument which the new Volume displays carry the great reform you advise some clear days further. Both the power and the influence of Part III seem to me cumulative.

The honorable correspondent whose courage and exhaustive letter is given is but a ^{type} of others who will arrive ^{to} corroborate your Wship labors.

THE ABSCONDING COTTON SALESMAN. - AT the LIVERPOOL Sessions
 8 on Saturday, before Mr. Recorder Aspinwall, Francis Reginald Sturmon, 21, cotton salesman, was charged with absconding 9 with £ 2,500, the property of his employers, Messrs.
 Ryland Brothers and Bunt, cotton brokers, Liverpool; 10 and Caroline Ellen Tate, a ballet dancer, was charged with complicity after the fact. It will be remembered 11 from the ~~maker~~ published records that on the 2nd of November last Sturmon, having received the 2,500 under the 12 pretence that he was going to the bank, absconded, and being joined in London by the female prisoner, 13 proceeded to Paris, Marseille ^{Kontakt} ^{Contact} Milan, and Lugano. After an exciting chase they were overtaken by detective 14 Inspector Carlisle, and induced to return to London. As there was no extradition treaty in force he was unable to 15 arrest them until their arrival in London. On the car coming before the committing magistrate he discharged the 16 girl, as there was no evidence of her having received any portion of the money with a felonious knowledge.
 17 The Recorder, in his charge to the grand jury, however, pointed out the danger that might arise from an 18 understood impunity in ^{Privat} ^{Personal} such cases, and thinking a full investigation very desirable he directed the a bill charging the female prisoner with complicity after the fact, in that she had aided and abetted the 19 robber, should be laid before the grand jury. Karl Karoline A true bill was returned, and the female ~~was~~ ^{was} ^{prisoner} was arrested and placed on her trial. The male prisoner pleaded "Guilty" in order, as stated by his counsel, that he might give evidence exonerating the female prison from any knowledge of the robbery.

 He was accordingly called and gave evidence.
 The case lasted several week hours, and resulted in a verdict finding the female 1997 proven "guilty". Sentence was deferred.

WORLD CUP FOOTBALL by David Mills

8 SHEARER LEADS WITH COURAGE AND CONVICTION Italy will have more technique, man for man, 9 than England at Wembley tonight and, on paper, ought to win, yet only a rash gambler would 10 forecast Italy's chances of victory at least from overs, never mind that they have won six 11 of the last nine encounters between the teams.

12 The reasons for this seeming contradiction are to be found in the head rather than the feet.

13 Whether it is Agincourt, ^{Kontakt} Bosko's Drift, Dunkirk or the football field, the English remain level-14 headed in the face of adversity, masters of the tight squeeze.

15 The deadpan comment from the cover sergeant in Zulu, when a novice lieutenant plaintively 16 asks why should they be ^{the ones} defending some isolated African outpost as the skyline darkens with 17 advancing warriors, says it all: "Because we're ere, lad, because we're ere."

18 Much the same sort ^{Privat} of sentiment was being bandied yesterday by the new English captain Alan Shearer, who played the question concerning the skills of Italy with a dead bat. Dangerous ☒ ^{attenders} Casiraghi and Zola? "We shall ^{Randi} ^{Randulf} give them respect. A moral up-tie for England?
"Yes, but only because it's the next one."

- for the future ~ ordinary people being asked to 8 develop ideas for themselves ~ hundreds of projects Seminars ~ schools, hobby, parks, ~ nothing forward 9 today - improvements on the old. But there were a few - ownership is not the solution to the 10 land problem, questions began to be raised - imaginations were beginning to work - new work 11 ~ managing ~ Now Freedom Cluster had to be drawn up - whose was it? Some sectors of the 12 FC are clear - others are fudge (tongued by those who work it?) [the People shall Govern] 13 So it was not a ^{Kontakt} Blueprint - so the opportunity to argue and debate remained - it was 14 a move towards an end of construction - but POWER was not part of it, how do you 15 achieve POWER (this was G years on by MK) 1955-1961 all the fudged issues came up: one of the 16 most important periods of debate - free & open: & this went on till 1994 - thus we have a situation 17 where the way for example has been agreed for 40 yrs.
 ~ this capacity for debate shaped the nature of 18 the Liberation Movement. ^{Private} ^{Personal} This made the SA transformation very unique - Freedom Cluster had been accepted by the People too already. 1990 the process began - of a matter of negotiation. C of P + FC left this tremendous work as SA History - they set the Agenda

KNAVES ARE FOOLS - Few things are commoner with judges who have rather an exceptional criminal before them than to compliment his ability at the expense of his character. "You have shown talents in this transaction which, if honestly applied, might have" &c. This language is both false and injudicious.
It gives rise to a notion that criminals are clever fellows, whereas, as a rule, they are the most messiable fools that can be imagined, and their cleverness, such as it is, is like the cleverness of a baby. You think it is a great thing if a child can speak plainly. A criminal who exercises the humblest kind of ingenuity is an exception. A good instance of the character of the criminal classes is a man called ~~Stratton~~ ^{Stratton} is afforded by a case tried at Liverpool of a man named ^{pleaded guilty to stealing in 1861 from his employer} ~~Stratton~~ ^{Stratton} absconded with a mistress & £2500, and though warned that the police were after him, he was prevented on his return on their arrival to accompany them back to England, without any sort of compulsion. He even brought the bulk of the money with him, Of course, as soon as he reached English ground he was taken in charge, which appeared to surprise both himself and the lady. It wants very little wits to commit a crime. ALL-MAN GAZETTE

STATHAM. F.R.

The Fray Furnace

The Book is like the moon -

1) The ideas are great ones - it is dedicated to all suffering women: it is the story of a woman who lives down the street of a moon: and she is not just taken in by him - she recognizes her complicity

2) But the book is true with its aristocrats, mountaineer twisters, and affectations murey

3) It is mean and vicious.

South Africa search

1) Conscious dictatorship

2) More search for new clothes:

Analogy discredited Nuremberg:

negotiated revolution ruled out punishment - no black history of collaboration nation-building, reconcile the Truth

- but it is a pragmatic concession.

Nuremberg dropped - but Holocaust continues -

South Africans must forge new identities mutual exhaustion - compromise - ambiguity - for a confession

How can reconciliation become DURABLE?

Truth telling in SA has led to

1) new truth need not be created revelation - it can lead to outrage

2) beneficiary - perpetrator - obscure

Degrees of reconciliation like for.

of justice - not just criminal justice

"... it was reserved for a Bishop of Natal, in Africa, to illuminate the world in the nineteenth century.

186 The whole drift of the prelate ... is to make the Zulus believe that he is more enlightened than Moses, and the African tribes than the tribes of Israel

"But I now address the general public we have here before us one of the great questions of the time, of which this generation must give account to future ages.
The "People" themselves, — that is, all persons of common sense, whether learned or otherwise — should have the opportunity of seeing with their own eyes what is the real state of the case."

p. 350 "It is not," says a reviewer, "as a biblical critic of profound learning that Bishop Colenso challenges our consideration. He has appeared before the world in the character of a revolutionary reformer, popularizing those objections to our old-established belief which were well known before to students in their libraries, and insisting on the public denunciation and abandonment of certain sacred traditions."

The President's Notes

Oppgaver
Activity

- 8 Publication of documents in 1880s quite exceptional 9 Has its origins in the public nature of the debate "Extracts from the Blue Books" fairly constant pressure from APS kept it in the public debate.
 10 The determination of the CO to have the trial as a public 11 & open debate, meant everything was published, except for Gallwey's most vituperative comments, and references to his "maddening" with the Zulu

9 p. 79. u. 4 Doherty's letter 18/12/1883. Add. MS 44142 f. 25.: Ask Ushibeba as sovereign 10 impossible; Cetwago only restorable 'under control', but a British solution necessary; 11 a provisional expedient would be occupation up to Ushibeba's boundary until a solution 12 devised: 'you will not like this nation,

Add MS 44142, f. 30

15 I think you will agree with me that the course you suggest for consideration as to Zululand would require that consideration 16 from my Cabinet. I do not feel able to come to a final judgment about it, partly from 17 what seems to me a confusion in the Bulwer telegram (of this I have asked by telegraph 18 an explanation).

But I should if possible gladly avoid this course, as a new departure, & especially on this ground

8 ~~to the S~~ I want to the Faculty to discuss the plan to the article in the Sunday Tribune. The I don't know who was responsible for the quotations: it must 9 be the members of the University to whom they were attributed - or it must be the journals & herself.
10 The damage by done to the University he seen aspects is massive: and perhaps irreversible: 11 We have Prof. M. Brown tally of Dept's which have been hemorrhaging for years: we had 12 him away that this is not the end - there must be his other Depts in his sights - 13 has he any idea what Kontakt Kontakt this does to staff morale, to planning. And what of the 14 public - what of the parents who we hope must be able to send their children 15 here - We have now Prof. Kygsten tally of the ~~to~~ how the university into 3rd & Debate Neo-liberalism" 4 points 1) Without an 8 Alternative - is a strategy of dominant capital.

2) Response to a Balance of Force with capital

9 3) leads to a deepening of the crisis 4) How does it operate in SA

10 1) A package is presented - an understanding of Globalisation - de-regulation of markets 11 (labour & financial, monetarism, flexible rates of exchange, privatisation - presented as 12 objective, w/o alternative: but this is the strategy of capital. What alternative's are there?

13 What is the struggle - Kontakt It is not the framework

14 in which we should operate 2) Why did it appear to do - a shift in the social balance of 15 forces - defeat of fascism led to the highest compromise of the welfare state, - in common.

16 My cell had a social content - it compelled capital to adjust - the opposite of today - the 17 adjustment led to high growth. These Balance of Forces are over because they were 18 successful - but had reached their limits - Welfare State - Socialism - and they went down - and Capital achieved the maximum of the Natural Profit of Capital - and then 19 simplistic 3) It cannot work - stagnation & chaos - can't produce - not a structural adjustment - but conjunctural adjustment - Managing the Crisis - not moving out of the crisis - look at deregulation, 3rd world debt, USA national debt - do produce Mange låntagere har opplevd at de har betalt høyere rente for et lån, enn det en trodde, eller sagt på en annen måte, den effektive renten er høyere enn de pålydende (nominelle). I begrepet effektiv rente skal alle kostnader i forbindelse med lånet tas med. I praksis vil dette si etableringsgebyr og gebyrer ved avdrags-/termininnbetalinger. Effektiv rente baseres på en beregningsmetode som innebærer at renten tillegges lånesaldo etterskuddsvis en gang pr. år. Dette er en meget vanlig beregningsmetode også for bankinnskudd.

Forskjellen mellom pålydende og effektiv rente avhenger av om renten betales forskudds- eller etterskuddsvis og hvor ofte renten kapitaliseres eller tillegges lånesaldoen.

Ved siden av er vist en tabell som viser effektiv rente ved henholdsvis forskuddsvis og etterskuddsvis rentebetaling.

I tillegg til de effektive rentesatser i tabellen vil komme eventuelle etableringsgebyr og termininnbetalingsgebyrer. Den enkelte bank og finansinstitusjon er pålagt å oppgi effektiv rente ved låneopptak og renteendringer.
