Every act of civilization is an act of barbarism" Benjamin

A struggle between the two - must increase the former -

(it's what you do with money)

The law - a voice

For civilization had what - selfless, a concern for others, realizing we are made men - but never escaping this in itself has the negative side.

Essentially - the spontaneous enjoyment of life and the world

In the book a struggle between two ways of life - a common humanity -

CO 879/7 again??

In 1800 south-east Africa had hardly been touched by growing, greedy forces originally emanating from the western margins of Euro-Asian Eurasia.

In 1900 its people had been crushed lost the political independence their political economic autonomy and were ruled by invaders on the grounds of their racial superiority as sages of the colony of Natal. This book documents the role played in this process by the men dominant in the central deeds of the century -

Theophilus Shepstone - SNA 1846 - 1878

His significance has been recognised from men till now and is controversial. Hated by some, admired, never loved, feared, but, I would argue never understood.

And his ges' - silent

A man on the minds of many!

the attach on those who attach the 179/ is now indexed.

Finished 1875 - test and begin 1876 ~ so TS should disappear - and leave behind the chance to change - but he approved of the NAB - and outline of its work needed - and the introduction of native law -

^{the native law}
This can only be understood - if the prev system is understood - the context - the Supreme Chief was had power - but was obliged to give land, access to means of production
- as were husbands - this was given - a TS protected his as well - ^{condition} customary law indicates the end of the native - did not recognize its context
- land by people - tenants remain - male power - none but the custom is free - unrecognized.
Supreme was forced to give it up.

It might be possible to include "civil laws" in the Na'aa, which is only 17 pp long - there is a danger of overload - but concentration on what was happening, and away from the words of the code. The NAA was a blunt cheque which allowed the sunter to interfere, & the first step was to get control: the differences at a local level is a minor issue - & civil matters between natives allowed Afriks to sort ^{run over} and administer, & the magistrates to intervene if & when they wanted.

After reading Welsh - coroners a/lk Shepley - once the Leg Co had a grip on native policy - Res. Govt replaced it —

This book began as a biography ^{study} - Then it was intended to complement two earlier ones - on John Calaneo bishop of Natal, and the his daughter Homeile.
She alone played an important part in both their lives, and his, while they have been extremely good.
She alone has come on. This has always worried me - there end.
I wanted to look more closely at it and when Gene Got Ketz.

It has proved for more difficult than I regret. Both SWC & HEC were private people. But they were private about their private lives. John Calaneo believed that with his father that there were certain on to do should only with God; his wife said after his death she knew the pain of the loss his friends in Anglican circles, but he said nothing about them. I was admonished by a reviewer that for not doing more on HEC fully. after I had searched for evidence of him for many years. But John. Homeile Calaneo were private about private matters.

Their political views were made & so publicly and fully; the bishop had many opportunities to do this; his daughter
- but, they were disappointed.

Evidence clear of trouble brewing

Disaffected amongst different groups and become rampant, public violence on the night, injury, damage. Murder-& attempted murder - and the point at issue is the identification of perpetrators.
The identification is always difficult.
Reliability must be tested.

Defence witnesses were generally the same - none were satisfactory. Shocking, belligerent demeanour. Contradicted the prior police statements. Inconsistent in chief under X-examination. Numerous contradictions - the identification parade. perpetrators of a crime group. Upset because the accounts were serious accounts vicious attacks, bad blood in Kolyal animosity no idea where the truth lies. Evidence relating to identification completely unreliable & suspicious.

No reasonable person could convict in face of evidence before this court. Worst waste of the court's time. The Primary Issue is identity. All accused deny all crimes, & alleged. Certain of the crimes have been proved 2 murders, assault - a report of violence at Kennedy Rd. But the testimony before the court is unreliable & suspicious. Witness made statements 1 & 6 weeks later attended identity parades. All the evidence is inconsistent and contradictory.

A reasoned prosecut. witness believed apparently & raises suspicion of non-hay fraud.
Fairly clear that it arose out of the unpopularity of the Abolition Forum group. The result the accused were displaced and shuffled. ~~No evidence that~~ Accused of - a some numb. but Rex was another alibi.

Given. I must proceed. Rex is a boy?
I cannot take the matter further.

Friday - Apply for discharge: a reasonable court might convict on
